Q6 In order to reduce pollution from transportation, about a dozen northeast states are designing a regional program to cap climate pollution from the transportation sector, and charge fossil fuel companies a fee to pollute. The revenues would be returned to each state and Vermont would invest them in clean transportation options like public transit, incentives for electric vehicles, and increased funding for bike paths and sidewalks. Do you strongly support, somewhat support, somewhat oppose, or strongly oppose Vermont joining this regional program to reduce pollution from transportation?
